passed final orders in para 8 of G.O. No. 5454-70 dtd 12-3-06. Regarding his grievance that his elder brothers are not inclined to go into partition with him, it does not seem possible to get to do anything more than asking the D.C. to use his influence with all the four brothers to settle their private affairs as amicably as possible. This is what the late Dy. Coll. of the D., Mr. D. Devaraja was, intended to do, but without perhaps any avail. may this petition be also forwarded to the D.C. for disposal? Subt. with a draft.
